A brief:

In its organic state, deep-rooted, granite is in a non-shimmering form. Kashyap Exports India Private Limited as a company was set up to bring the finest out of the natural Indian rock and deliver these treasured ores from the hidden pockets of numerous Indian states to various parts of the world.

Today - with various factory alliances, solid quarry coalitions, offices in key granite cities of India and huge stock yards of granite tiles and slabs, we at Kashyap Exports India have established ourselves as a favored link for provisions of Indian granites in several forms and textures and dimensions.

The Company:

At Kashyap Exports we started our business as a commercial exporter and achieved capability in procuring quality granite slabs and tiles predominantly from South India. From there we progressed into purchasing of granite blocks directly from quarries and took up 'jobbing' at several factories. Our partnership with well-located factories near mines helped us in offering better production materials at reduced costs - which in turn increased our aspirations.

Our quality and customer services ethics aided in accomplishing our buyers trust we evolved rapidly to set up a partnership with numerous granites cutting/processing factories valued locations. All the factory locations in close proximity quarries of over 90 Indian Granite colors.
